

I support media diversity

I am writing to you today to comment on Docket No. 02-277, The Biennial Review of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules.

I do not believe that the studies

When I was a child my Father built and owned a small AM radio station in Yuba City, California called KUBA. I grew up watching him gather news, read the news and be the first to broadcast a Mexican and Punjabi program and to do live broadcasts from the First Methodist Church in our town. I'm now a 58 year old woman and when I turn on the radio or television I am sickened and disgusted by the one sided views presented by the large corporations who control most of our media.

Please do not allow this to continue. We're losing much of what made us "America" and this change in the FCC Rules is just another power grab by very powerful people who want to shape American public opinion.

Please restore our media to the vital, community member it once was.

Sincerely,
Carla Gray
